ANGELICA LOPEZ

Angelica Lopez comes to us from New York City, NY. Angelica is a certified Dance Adjudicator. Angelica started dancing at the age of three, and by the age of seven, she started training at Broadway Dance Center in their Children and Teens Program and became a part of their dance company (Arts in Motion). She has performed with the company in many popular venues, including The Macy's Day Parade and Good Morning America. Angelica has been the recipient of many dance scholarships through The Pulse On Tour Dance Convention, including Protege, 2009-2015. She has also been awarded a fully-paid scholarship by StageDoor productions for their Broadway Dances workshop where a select few get to learn music and choreography from current Broadway actors. She has appeared on BET's 106 & Park on several occasions including once as a featured performer for Willow Smith. She was hired by Microsoft to take part in a massive Launch for the XBox Kinect game in Times Square dancing with Ne-yo. In 2011 Angelica played dancing Dora in the animated movie for Nickelodeon, called Dora and the Explorer girls, Starring Shakira and choreographed by Luis Salgado. She also danced in the half-time show at the Miami Dolphins game with Enrique Iglesias. She took part in Beyonce's/Mrs. Obama's Campaign called "Let's Move," and was selected to take part in the instructional portion of the video. She was a part of the commercial for Google Chrome featuring Lady GAGA, appeared in an episode of Are We There Yet? Television series and took part in a PSA campaign calling for World Peace. She was hired by Hasbro Toy Company for a commercial of one of their most popular toys, "Britney Spears' Twister Dance Rave." During September and October 2013 Angelica played "Ava" in Dead Man's Party, an annual show that takes place at Six Flags Great Adventure as part of Fright Fest. She also is the assistant choreographer for the successful children's commercial team, Boss Kids, where her choreography has been part of award-winning pieces. She currently teaches master classes and sets choreography across the tri-state area! Angelica loves to inspire dancers through constructive adjudication and cannot wait to inspire dancers, teachers and choreographers on the Innerlight Tour!

JULIANNE FERNANDEZ

Julianne Fernandez is a certified Dance Adjudicator. Julianne, also known as "Dance With Jules," is a choreographer and technique and strength coach based out of Miami, Florida. Jules is a NASM Certified Personal Trainer for dancers. Since 2014, Julianne has choreographed and worked with countless dance studios, dance teams, dancers and gymnasts across Florida and the United States. "Dance With Jules" works with individual dancers from all over the country with the intent to improve the technical achievement of dancers in correlation to the demand for optimal technique in the competitive dance industry. In addition to her freelance work, Julianne obtained Bachelor of Arts in Literature and a Minor in Child Development from Florida State University and is a current graduate student of Clinical Mental Health Counseling with the intent to provide mental health services to dancers in the industry. Julianne has a wide range of experience from working on music videos to coaching dancers in the competitive dance industry. She aims to represent choreographers, coaches, and studio directors on the judging panel with informative and constructive critiques.

CHRISTINA YOUNG

Christina Yoder is a Head Adjudicator at ID Dance Competition and is an exemplary leader in the Dance Adjudication. Christina, a certified dance adjudicator is a sought-after tap, lyrical, jazz and conditioning teacher. She is a cofounder and director of Resonance Tap Experience, in studio tap conventions and producer of the Rock City and Steel City Tap Festivals. She travels throughout the US as a guest teacher, choreographer, and competition adjudicator. With ever evolving technology (and thanks to a computer programmer husband,) she even checks in with her students through virtual classroom space. Christina is certified in Acrobatic Arts through level 6 and an AFAA certified fitness professional. Christina was a member of The Shelley Oliver Tap Dancers and completed two national/international tours with VEE Corporation's Sesame Street Live, where she helped Ernie and Baby Bear with their dance moves. She was also an understudy, having to learn and perform any of 13 different roles in certain situations. SSL brought Christina to a journey through Asia where she performed in Hong Kong, China, Singapore and Malaysia. Theater performance credits include: A Chorus Line (with Mark Bovey), Kiss Me Kate, and Annie Get Your Gun. Christina is a native of Portersville, PA. Through high school, she received numerous awards and scholarships for dance, as well as performed in the halftime show of the Pro-Bowl. Christina went on to pursue a BA in Dance and Psychology from Muhlenberg College, where she had the opportunity to choreograph for and perform in numerous concerts, including the American College Dance Festival National events at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. Christina has shown her abilities as a versatile teacher, being able to instruct her students in all levels of tap, lyrical, jazz, ballet, modern, contemporary, acrobatics and also voice. Her students have been recognized for their impeccable technique and emotive dance qualities and have been seen in commercial and print work. They have gone on to win regional and national titles, booked national tours, and Broadway shows, are pursuing dance in college, are on nationally ranked college dance teams, professional basketball dance teams, division I cheerleaders, professional dancers and choreographers, and even dance teachers! Christina has been a sought-after dance competition adjudicator for many years. Christina has been an exceptional part of the ID Adjudication Team for many years and is proud to lead in the industry with top adjudication.
