

ID DANCE COMPETITION DRESSING ROOM GUIDELINES & ETIQUETTE

- PHOTOGRAPHY AND/OR VIDEOGRAPHY IS STRICTLY PROHIBITED IN ALL DRESSING ROOM SPACES.
- ID does NOT typically assign dressing rooms and therefore the dressing room is a shared space for EVERYONE!
  - Please do not use chairs to barricade space for your studio.
- Please promptly remove belongings from dressing rooms after your dancer has finished competing to accommodate the next dancers coming in for the day.
- Please refrain from holding open any doors or curtains that act as entrances/exits. Everyone's privacy is of the utmost importance!
- ID does not allow the use of pop up dressing tents OR folding tables in the dressing room.
- Touching belongings from another studio is prohibited.
- Please refrain from having unnecessary visitors in the dressing room.
- KEEP THAT ID ENERGY AT ALL TIMES! Remember to be kind and courteous to others in the dressing rooms! Kindness and respect is more than appreciated at ID Events.
- GOLDEN RULE: Leave the space better than you found it! Please throw away any trash that is produced by your dancers throughout the day. If there are no trash cans available, please notify ID staff and we will promptly take action.
- If a parent, guardian, or otherwise supervising adult that is of another gender than the dancer needing assistance with costume changes, please use the 'Gender Neutral/Family' dressing room.
- Safety of our dressing rooms is a #1 priority. Please report any concerning behavior to the Registration/Merchandise Staff so we can take action accordingly.
